

this State, under the provisions of the aforesaid act, and commence, and diligently prosecute against the said President and Directors or such of them, as shall have allowed authorized or connived at the application of any portion of the aforesaid money, to any purpose not within the scope meaning or authority of the aforesaid act, such suit or action, suits or actions, as may appear to him expedient, for recovery of the money, so improperly applied or expended.

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time.

On motion of Mr. Alexander, said preamble and resolution was laid on the table, and made the order of the day for Tuesday the 20th instant.

The clerk of the Senate returned the bill entitled, an act to continue in force the acts of assembly which would expire with the present session of the General Assembly,

Also, the bill entitled, an act for the relief of the heirs and legal representatives of Peter Orndorff,

Also, the bill entitled, an act allowing Elijah Taylor, former collector of the first collection district of Baltimore county, further time to complete his collections,

Also, the bill entitled, an act for the relief of John Hannah, of Harford county,

Also, the bill entitled, an act to authorise the commissioners of Cecil county to levy a sum of money for building a bridge and erecting a dam in said county,

Severally endorsed, 'will pass,' and severally ordered to be engrossed:

Also, the bill entitled, an act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road from some point on the national turnpike road west of Cumberland, to intersect the north-western turnpike road of Virginia at some point in Allegany county, endorsed, 'will pass, with the proposed amendments,'

Which amendments were severally read the first time and ordered to lie on the table;

And delivered the following messages,

By the Senate,

February 10th, 1837.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates;

The Senate have received your message requesting them to recede from their proposition to go into the election of Register of Wills for Carroll county on the 9th instant, instead of the 16th instant, as proposed by your honorable body.
